[Heb 11:30 NASB]

By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days.

[Heb 11:31 NASB]

By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish along with those who were disobedient, after she had welcomed the spies in peace.

[Heb 11:32 NASB]

And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets,

[Heb 11:33 NASB]

who by faith conquered kingdoms, performed [acts of] righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,

[Heb 11:34 NASB]

quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

[Heb 11:35 NASB]

Women received [back] their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not accepting their release, so that they might obtain a better resurrection;

[Heb 11:36 NASB]

and others experienced mockings and scourgings, yes, also chains and imprisonment.

[Heb 11:37 NASB]

They were stoned, they were sawn in two, they were tempted, they were put to death with the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated

[Heb 11:38 NASB]

([men] of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves and holes in the ground.

[Heb 11:39 NASB]

And all these, having gained approval through their faith, did not receive what was promised,

[Heb 11:40 NASB]

because God had provided something better for us, so that apart from us they would not be made perfect.
